CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:*Rudolfo TORREZ*PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On March 3, 2008, at approximately 4:55 a.m., Border Patrol Agent M. Denning was performing line watch duties for the Chula Vista Border Patrol Station in an area known as "CHP Lot." This area is located approximately one mile east of the Otay Mesa, California Port of Entry and approximately 100 yards north of the United States and Mexico International Border.

Agent Denning, responded to a radio transmission from the infrared scope operator, Border Patrol Agent K. Ruffner, who observed four individuals running north. Agent Denning encountered four individuals. Agent Denning identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned each individual as to their citizenship and nationality. All four, including one later identified as the defendant Rudolfo TORREZ, admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico without any immigration documents that would allow them to remain in the United States legally. Agent Denning placed the individuals under arrest and had them transported to the Chula Vista Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to El Salvador on October 17, 2007 through Phoenix, Arizona. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
